For

A GOSPEL OF G

1.

There are challenges
to be flanked.

“...I set before them the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles. I wanted to be sure I was not running and had not been running my race in vain.”

Galatians 2:1-2

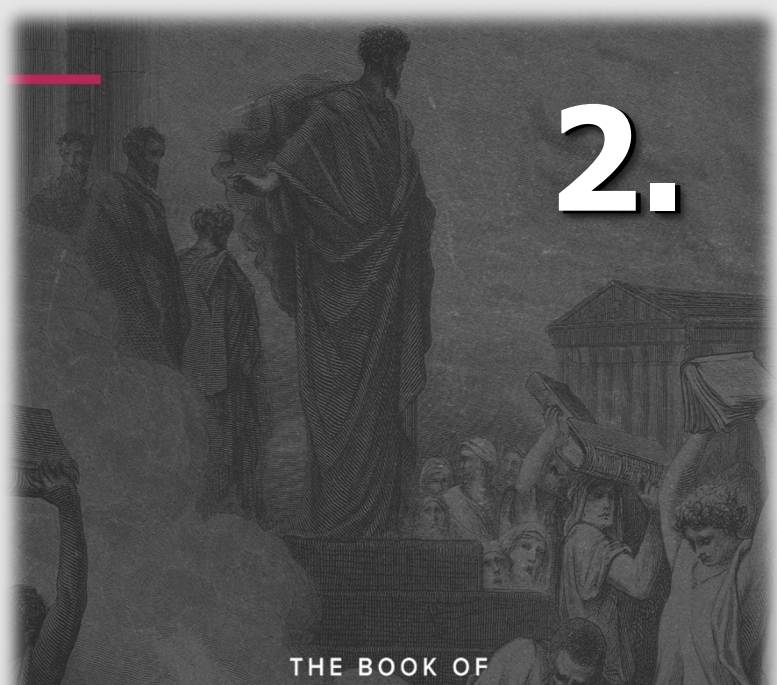

Q:

How religious does someone need to be to become a Christian?

Q:

How religious does someone need to be to become a Christian?

Not at all!

2.

There are champions
to be found.

Galatians 2:3

How should we respond to religious traditions?

- If it is clear and important,
follow it

How should we respond to religious traditions?

- If it is important but unclear,
define it

How should we respond to religious traditions?

- If it is important but demphasized,
refine it

How should we respond to religious traditions?

- If it is no longer important,
celebrate it and conclude it

3.

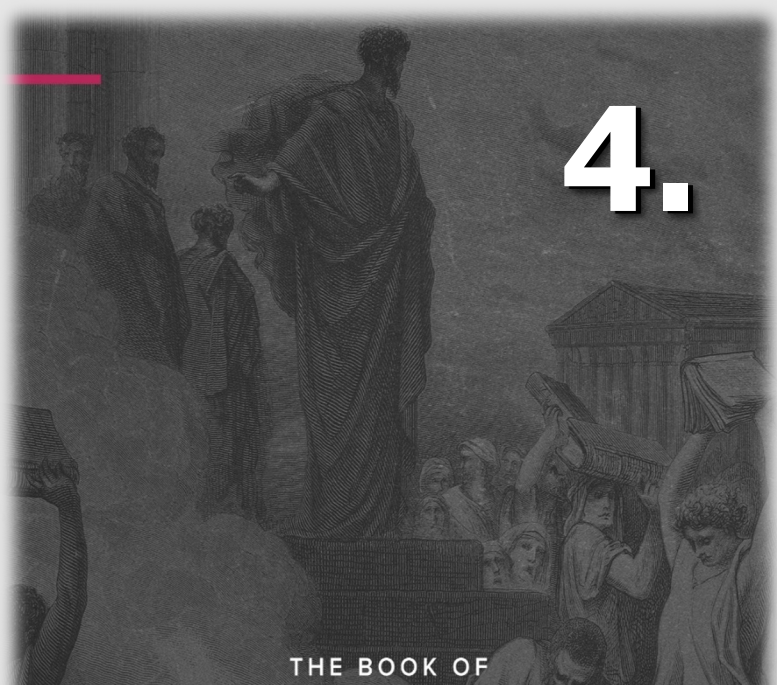

There is a commission to be fulfilled.

“But these leaders saw that I had been given the work of telling the Good News to those who are not Jewish, just as Peter had the work of telling the Jews.”

4.

There is a commendation to be followed.

“All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor, the very thing I had been eager to do all along.”
